

About the Authors

John A. Buehrens is President of the Unitarian Universalist Association, co-author of A Chosen Faith, and author of The Uses of Memory. "Evil, Race, and Us" was the John Murray Lecture for 1996, delivered for the Murray Grove Association at the General Assembly of the UUA, June 1996, in Indianapolis, Indiana.

David E. Bumbaugh is Associate Professor of Ministry and Director of Field Education at Meadville Lombard Theological School. A parish minister for over forty years, Rev. Bumbaugh is author of The Education of God. "Why Anti-Racism Will Fail: A Response" was delivered at the General Assembly of the UUA, June 1999, in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Lisa M. S. Friedman is Minister of the Unitarian Universalist Church of Flint, Michigan. "From Salvation to Self-Determination: Unitarian Universalism on the Michigan Frontier" was delivered at the Ohio River Group in October 1998.

Nurya Love Lindberg is Minister of Epiphany Community Church, Unitarian Universalist, in Fenton, Michigan. "Changed By What We Cannot Name: The Transformation of Unitarian Universalism, Past and Present" was delivered at the Ohio River Group in October 1998.

Paul B. Rasor is Adjunct Instructor in Theology at Andover Newton Theological School, Visiting Lecturer at Harvard Divinity School, and Assistant Minister at First Parish in Lexington, Massachusetts. "The Self in Contemporary Liberal Religion: A Constructive Critique" is based on portions of his doctoral dissertation, Creative Interchange, Intersubjectivity, and the Social Self: A Contemporary Reexamination of Henry Nelson Wieman's Empirical Theology (Harvard University, 1998).

Steven C. Rockefeller is Professor Emeritus of Religion, Middlebury College, and Chair of the Earth Charter drafting committee. Dr. Rockefeller is currently Chairman of the Rockefeller Brothers Fund, and is author of John Dewey: Religious Faith and Democratic Humanism and (with John Elder) editor of Spirit and Nature: Why the Environment is a Religious Issue - An Interfaith Dialogue. "The River of the Water of Life: The Challenge of Pluralism In an Interdependent World" was delivered at the Commencement Convocation of Meadville Lombard Theological School, June 1999.

Thandeka is Associate Professor of Theology and Culture of Meadville Lombard Theological School and author of The Embodied Self: Friedrich Schleiermacher's Solution to Kant's Problem of the Empirical Self and Learning to Be White: Money, Race, and God in America. "Why Anti-Racism Will Fail" was delivered at the General Assembly of the UUA, June 1999, in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Lynn Ungar is Minister of the Second Unitarian Church of Chicago. "A Carefully Loaded Ship" was delivered at the Annual Meeting of the Pacific Central District of the UUA in Stockton, California, in April 1999.

John H. Weston is Ministerial Settlement Director in the Department of Ministry of the Unitarian Universalist Association. Dr. Weston welcomes responses to "The Changing Ministry of Information" at jweston@uua.org or 25 Beacon St., Boston, MA 02108.